

ANNA NOSENKOAssociateSpecialisation:

Anna's main areas of professional focus are corporate law and M&A, contract law, banking and finance, general commercial matters and providing legal support to international non-governmental organisations in connection with their activities in Ukraine. Anna's clients span various businesses, with renewable energy, defence tech and banking and financial being the sectors where Anna has particular expertise.

Education:

- Yaroslav Mudryi National Law University, Faculty of Justice, Bachelor of Laws (honours), 2023.
- Yaroslav Mudryi National Law University, Faculty of Advocacy, Master of Laws (honours), 2024.

Recent experience includes advising:Corporate law and M&A

- A leading French manufacturer of professional defense-focused drones on establishing its legal presence in Ukraine, registration of a limited liability company, and obtaining a Diia City resident status with its ongoing support.
- A US defense-tech startup on the legal structuring of its operations in Ukraine, registration of a limited liability company, and opening of a bank account.
- A Greek company specialising in the implementation of renewable energy projects on the legal structuring of its operations in Ukraine and registration of a limited liability company.
- A Polish engineering and construction group specialising in the design, construction, reconstruction and maintenance of energy infrastructure facilities, on the legal due diligence of a number of land plots contemplated for acquisition for subsequent construction of a wind power plants.
- One of the companies of a Ukrainian investment group with a diversified portfolio of assets - ranging from real estate, infrastructure and industry to innovation parks, renewable energy and pharmaceuticals, on the winding up of its operations, liquidation of the limited liability company and closure of bank accounts.
- A Ukrainian IT company - a subsidiary of a US global B2B payment platform providing businesses with online payment acceptance and processing solutions worldwide, on the winding up of its operations, liquidation of the limited liability company and closure of bank accounts.

Banking and finance law

- A Canada-headquartered international payment system on its registration in the Ukraine's Register of Payment Infrastructure, legal assistance with the preparation of the payment system's rules and internal AML/CFT/CPF policies (anti-money laundering, countering the financing of terrorism, and counter-proliferation financing), as well as supporting operational matters.
- Hero Future Energies, part of Hero Group - one of India's leading industrial conglomerates operating renewable energy power plants on legal support and drafting of commercial securities sale and purchase agreements, as well as opening of securities accounts with depositary institutions.

Contract law and general commercial matters

- UDP Renewables, a Ukrainian developer of renewable energy projects, on drafting commercial agreements in the energy sector for the subsequent construction of wind power plants.
- A leading UN agency focused on gender equality, reproductive health and youth empowerment, on drafting commercial agreements, re-registration of vehicles and other civil law matters arising during its activities in Ukraine, including matters relating to the delivery of humanitarian aid.
- A Norwegian non-governmental humanitarian organisation specialising in providing assistance and protection to persons affected by forced displacement, on drafting commercial agreements and other civil law matters arising in the course of its activities in Ukraine.

Jurisdiction

Ukraine

Languages

Ukrainian, English