

DENYS NATESAAssociatePractice areas

The main areas of professional activity include the defense and representation of clients in criminal proceedings, particularly in cases of white-collar crime. Denys has over eight years of experience in the prosecutor's office.

Education

- Faculty of the Prosecutor's Office of Yaroslav Mudryi National Law University, 2010

Recent experience includes advising:

- Defending the top management of one of Ukraine's largest iron ore producers and exporters against criminal prosecution.
- Advising and representing an international agricultural holding in law enforcement agencies and courts on protection against unlawful business interference.
- Representing a company involved in online casino operations in criminal proceedings.
- Representing the interests of the Client in criminal proceedings related to the illegal seizure of property during searches and securing the return of temporarily seized property.
- Representing the Client's interests in criminal proceedings related to a road accident.

Jurisdictions

Ukraine

Languages

Ukrainian, russian.