

IHOR SMIRNOVAssociateSpecialisation:

Ihor specialises in civil and commercial law, intellectual property and IT law. He participates in projects related to court representation, tender procedure support, and advising clients from various economic sectors.

Education:

- Taras Shevchenko National University of Kyiv, Educational and Scientific Institute of Law, Master of Law, 2022.

Recent experience includes advising:Civil and Commercial Law

- Protection of interests of PJSC "BUDMATERIALY" in court proceedings against JSC "Gas Distribution System Operator "VINNYTSIAGAZ" and NKREKP regarding the recovery of UAH 309,705,360.00.
- Legal support for financial companies.
- Protection of interests of LLC "OMEGA" in a case concerning the recognition of illegal and cancellation of individual acts of authorities.

Contract Law and Commercial Matters

- LLC "EGIS UKRAINE" on issues of development and legal support of a tripartite agreement regarding the functioning of the public transport system and the distribution of funds for provided passenger transportation services.
- Preparation and participation in open tenders.

International Cooperation and Charitable Activities

- Legal support for international charitable organizations and preparation of documentation for crossing the customs border with humanitarian aid.
- Advising foreign companies on employee labor contracts.

Jurisdictions:

Ukraine

Languages:

Ukrainian, English.